The News.

We have interesting news from Washington, this morning. President Buchanan has removed Secretary Stanton, of Kansas, and appointed Gen. Denver in his stead. Senator Douglas earnestly opposed the change, but the Administration carried it by 10 majority. There is very current rumor that Gov. Walker is to be the next victim. There is music ahead.

Sundry items of news will be found under the telegraph head. The New York Money Market continues to improve, and the Produce Market is moderately active at fair rates.

The meeting of the Tax-Payers of our city, at Market Hall, next Monday evening, promises to be an imposing demonstration.

"That City Loan."

The News has found its tongue, at last, and in yesterday's issue ventures upon a few words with regard to that fabulous "City Loan." Having announced, with a great flourish of drums and trumpets, the departure of Mayor Cross for New York, to borrow money for city purposes; having exultingly proclaimed the success of his mission, having chronicled his return with the money "borrowed at 12 per cent;" and having made diligent use of these different fictions to manufacture a little spurious political capital for its party and candidate, the News now finds itself in the disagreeable position of seeing its several statements on this subject branded as unauthorized and false by the Mayor himself. To be sure, his Honor withheld this official contradiction till after election and, meantime, took the benefit of all that the News said in praise of his financial skill and success. But the whole story is now exploded, and the News is left with the fabrication on its hands and the brand on its brow. Of course, its temper is not improved by the circumstance, and as it rightly holds the Sentinel responsible for the mortifying exposure, it makes us the subject of its angry diatribes.—So far as we are concerned, it is entirely welcome to rail at the Sentinel to its heart's content, and the more so that, since its reckless falsehoods have been "officially" shown up, there is not the slightest occasion to notice, or contradict statements to which the public no longer attach the least credit.

Matters in Kansas.

It will be seen by our advices from Kansas that the Free State men are organizing in earnest to reject the Lecompton Constitution and establish one for themselves. The sudden decapitation of Secretary Stanton, for aiding the movement, and the threatened removal of Gov. Walker, while they show clearly enough the animus of the Administration, will only stimulate the Freemen of Kansas to still more determined resistance. There is every prospect of lively times ahead.

New York Bank Statement.

The averages of the banks in the city of New York for the week ending on Saturday last, Dec. 5, present in the aggregate the following changes from the previous weekly statement:

Increase in Loans,	$1,870,493
do Specie,	1,766,417
do Circulation,	24,217
do Undrawn deposits,	186,994

The large increase in Loans is an encouraging feature of the statement. The specie average, presents the extraordinary figure of $26,069,832. This, however, is likely to be somewhat diminished hereafter by the increasing shipments of specie to Europe.

The President "Knows no West."

While printed copies of the Message were sent in advance, to New York, Boston, Charleston New Orleans, Richmond, Savannah, &c., it does not appear that the same courtesy was extended to any of the Western Cities. Nor does the document itself take any notice whatever of one of the leading interests of the country, the Great Western River and Lake Navigation. While the enormous amount of seventy-five millions is demanded, to defray the Government expenses for the current year, the President does not vouchsafe one word, or recommend one dollar of expenditure, for the improvement of our Western Rivers and Lake Harbors. Although the commerce of these Lakes now reaches an aggregate annual value of over three hundred millions, our Democratic President does not deem this vast interest worthy of any place in his Message, or entitled to the slighest care or protection at the hands of the Federal Government.

Coolness of Prince John Calhoun.—His Excellency John Calhoun, B. R., &c., in his late Proclamation calling upon the people of Kansas to play the game of heads—I-win-tails-you-lose, appoints an election to be held—to use his language:—"to determine whether the Constitution to be submitted for the ratification of the people, shall contain a clause authorizing the introduction of Slavery into the State of Kansas under the said constitution, or not."

Considering that the same proclamation goes on to state the vote to be for the Constitution "any how," the impudence of the words in Italic, is sublime.

The Last hope fled.—The special messenger despatched to La Pointe by the Cross men, in search of "supplements," returned to this city yesterday. He reported "no luck," and says that the democratic majority in La Pointe was so small that it was no object to bring it along.

The Fire at Oshkosh.—A correspondent at Oshkosh, takes exceptions to the statements of "B. S." in relation to the fire in that place on the 7th, and thinks the firemen were unjustly censured by him, and that they did their duty manfully—all there was to do.

Publishing Births.—The Richland Co. Observer has commenced publishing a list of births.—The first week's report for Richland Centre is five, two boys and three girls.

☞ Thomas D'Arcy McGee has been nominated for the Canadian Parliament by the Irish citizens of Montreal, who claim one member from that city, on the strength of their population.

Latest News from the Plains.—We are in receipt of a few items, of perhaps later intelligence from Utah, than that published by us on yesterday. Monsieur Mageau reached here last evening, having gotten on the steamer Edinburg on the 3d inst., at Kansas City. He is just forty days from Salt Lake City. He reports having met the government trains blocked up in the snow—the cattle dying, and the officers and men gloomy and despondent. The Mormons were making the most active preparations to repel the troops. Brigham Young had stated in public council, that he would harrass the United States forces and keep them out until they received recruits enough to overpower him, and then, after burning the city, he would lead his people into the mountains.—St. Louis Democrat, Dec. 10.

Member of Assembly.—The official canvass for member of assembly, last Tuesday resulted as follows:

Whole number of votes cast,	1004
James B. Gray received,	787
Orrin Rice,	216
Majority for Gray,	571

Since the canvass, returns have been received from Douglass county, which stand for Rice 147, for Gray 28, so that Gray's majority is still 447. No returns have been received from Burnett or Lapointe, and probably none will be.—Hudson (St. Croix Co.) Chronicle Nov. 30.

Mr. Gray was the Republican and Mr. Rice the Democratic Candidate in the Assembly District comprising the Counties of St. Croix, Polk, Douglas, La Pointe and Burnett.

A Safe Jail.—The St. Paul Advertiser has no great opinion of the security of the Prison at Stillwater. It says that criminals are no more safely caged there than a "canary bird would be in a ten acre lot, with the bars down."

Small chance, then, for doing justice to the election forgers.

The Atlantic and Ogdensburg case.—In this case, E. B. Ward and S. Clement, successors to Samuel Ward, deceased, have beengranted an appeal to the United States supreme Court, from the decree rendered by the U. S. Court in 1858.

☞ David Wilmot, of Bradford, has been appointed by Gov. Pollock, of Pennsylvania, President Judge of the Thirteenth Judicial District of that State. Mr. Wilmot occupied that position when nominated for Governor last Summer, and resigned it when he proposed to stump the State with General Parker, his democratic opponent

Milwaukee, Dec. 9th. ☞

Milwaukee Drug House.—This, although a well-established house, has not often been heard of through the medium of the press, but we are glad to notice that it is now in a fair way of being better known to the public, as will be seen by reference to our advertising columns this morning.

Mr. Fess has an extensive stock of drugs, medicines, paints, and every variety of goods in that line, to which he, very sensibly, invites the attention of the trading public, by means of the newspaper. We need not say to our readers in the city, that they can find as nice an assortment of fancy articles, perfumery and family medicines, at Mr. Fess', as can be seen at any establishment of the kind in the country.

Mr. Fess also does an extensive wholesale business, and merchants in the country will do well to look over his list of goods, and when they have occasion to purchase goods, they will lose nothing by calling at the Milwaukee Drug House, No. 195 East Water St.

First Baptist Church.—Rev. Dr. Pyper will on Sunday morning at the usual hour of service, deliver the seventh lecture of his series on the "Characteristics of the Times as seen from a Bible stand-point." The discourse will be a continuation of the discussion of last last Sabbath, on the "Signs of the Times."

No. Four's Ball.—We publish this morning the programme and list of Managers of No. Four's Ball, to be given on the 22d inst. Every body will want to attend of course.

Will open to-day.—Andrew Rheude & Co, give notice that they will open their new Bier Hall 217 East Water Street, this morning with a free lunch, and a concert this evening.

Young's Hall to-night.—The "Sable Harmonists," it will be remembered, give a concert at Young's Hall this evening. If we can judge from the bills posted in all the conspicuous parts of the city, the entertainment will be an interesting one.

Jurisdiction of the Police Justice.—A day or two since a couple of men were brought before the Police Justice, and examined on a charge of stealing paint and oil in the town of Wauwatosa. In the progress of the examination the fact was disclosed that the property was taken from a house, which, although not completed, was occupied by some of the workmen, and therefore would be considered a dwelling house. This altered the case, it seems, for our statute provides that a case of house-robbery is one in which a Justice of the Peace has no final jurisdiction, and consequently when this evidence was disclosed, Justice Walworth, before whom the case was being examined, stopped the proceedings, and acted as he would in a case cognizable before the Circuit Court. The examination resulted in the parties being held to bail in the sum of $250 each for their appearance before that Court.

The Court, at the conclusion of the examination, remarked, that had he final jurisdiction in the case, it was doubtful whether he should consider the evidence sufficient to convict the parties, but as their was a doubt of their guilt, the matter must go before the Grand Jury for examination.

In relation to this case, the News says:

The above case illustrates the humbugging natures of the statutes of this State. Fortunately, the two defendants named above were able to procure bail, and thus have escaped the polluting malaria of our loathsome jail. The Police Justice says, in so many words, they ought not to be convicted—that if he had final jurisdiction he should have discharged them; and yet, under his oath, as the fact was disclosed, that some workmen engaged in building a house, slept in it, and the house might or might not be a dwelling house, he cannot finally dispose of the case, and the matter goes to the Grand Jury, who will doubtless throw out the complaint.

From which one would be likely to infer, that the Police Justice was satisfied that the parties were not guilty, and yet was obliged to send the matter before the Grand Jury. Such, however, is not the case, for if he believed that the defendants were innocent, then it would have been his duty to have dismissed the case; but there was a doubt in his mind as to the innocence of the parties, and the statute very properly provides that such a doubt is to be decided upon by a higher tribunal than a Justice of the Peace.

We are not at all desirous of discussing the merits or de-merits of our statutes with the News, but in the application to this case, we can discover nothing very obnoxious, or as it very classically has it, "humbugging."

Young Men's Association.—Do our citizens know what a library we have among us? We very much doubt it. Certainly we were much surprised ourselves the other evening, on dropping in at the rooms, at the general air of comfort prevading them, the full supply of newspapers and periodicals in the reading room, and above all at the very choice selection of books in the library. We can assure our readers that they will find there something more than "Harpers' Family Library" and odd volumes of Patent office Reports. In every department, whether of History, Biography, Fiction, Politics, or Natural Science, many of the choicest books in our language may be found in the Library. Even rare and choice editions of standard works, are concealed under the uniform brown covers that fill its shelves. We have not now time to particularize, but can only wish that our citizens generally, would take a look at the rooms in Tweedy's Block, next to the Newhall House, and see what a few years of quiet labor and attention have done for the library of the Association.

The Reading Room is a new feature added to the attractions during the present year. It is conveniently located, next door to the Newhall House, is open at all hours from half past seven in the morning till ten at night, and always has on its stands the latest newspapers from all our principal cities. The use of all this is only two dollars a year, and we think it need only to be generally known, to be generally patronized.—We have no other general reading room among us, and we can see no reason why the newspaper reading room of the Young Men's Association should not be crowded, in the hours of leisure, by our business men.

Persons wishing to become members can do so by applying at the Rooms.

The City Accounts.—In noticing yesterday a resolution offered in the Common Council by Ald. Kuehn, calling upon the railroad companies for information concerning the bonds issued to them, the time and place when and where coupons are to be paid, &c., we added the following remarks:

"One would suppose that the City Comptroller ought to have, in his own books, a full and accurate list of every bond issued by the city, whether for Railroads or any other object. Or have the city accounts been so loosely kept that this information cannot be obtained from the Comptroller's office?"

We learn from the Comptroller that the books in his office do not contain this information, and therefore the necessity of the call upon the several Railroad Companies. But he claims that the fault is not his, and that he has been compelled to do a vast amount of extra work to bring the books and accounts of his Department into anything like order. This is one of the subjects which should engage the attention of the Tax-Payers' meeting, on Monday next.

New Fire Companies.—In our report of the doings of the Common Council on Monday night, we stated the Committee on Fire Department to whom had been referred the petition of Daniel O'Leary and others, asking privilege for the organization of a new Fire Company, reported adverse to granting the same, and that the Committee were of opinion that it would be improper for the Council to grant the privilege of organizing any more Fire Companies at the present time, as some of those which we already have are not fully manned, &c. The report was adopted.

It seems we misunderstood the nature of this petition, for Mr. O'Leary writes us, that instead of asking privilege for the organization of a new Fire Company, the petition which he and others sent to the Council was just the reverse, and was intended by the petitioners as a check upon our extravagant administration, there having been some talk of organizing a new Fire Company.

News of the Telegraph.—The telegraphe early this morning, to Chicago, inquiring if the Message was published in the Chicago morning papers. At half past one this afternoon—just one hour after the Chicago papers had reached here by mail—we got an answer.—Free Democrat.

We telegraphed at about 2 P. M. on the same business, and got no answer for several hours—in fact till an answer would have been too late for our purpose. Great institution, is the telegraph!

Police Court, Dec. 11th.—Drunk and Disorderly.—Thomas Honnery fined $3,00 and costs and Michael Marsh fined $1,00.

Disorderly.—Margaret Michelhaus, fined $7,00 and costs. Caroline Marshall fined same amount, John O. Human, fined $2,00 and cost, and Michel Davis fined $5,00 and costs.

August Faufe, for violating the street ordinance was fined $1,00.

Michael Crowley was examined on a charge of wilful trespass, and being found not guilty was discharged. Mathias Fitzer was examined on a like charge and also discharged.

Meeting of the Mil. Union Relief Association.—Rev. Mr. Macreading in the Chair.—Minutes of last meeting approved.

Committee on central office reported that they had secured a room on Main Street, at a rent of $15 per month. Also that they had given the Collectors their subscription papers. Report adopted.

Motion for Collectors to report. Report of Mr. Daggett and Mr. Oberman of the 6th ward; cash $41; goods $6,40; wood $45,50; bread $2; flour $14; meat $2,50; shoes $2; cash subscribed and not paid $23. Report adopted.

Report of the Collectors of the 3d ward called for. Mr. Hewitt and Mr. Judson reported that they had collected $167.

Mr. Paul Whittemore, Mr. Bass and Mr. E. Emery were appointed visitors for the 4th Ward.

The Secretary instructed to publish the name and residence of each visitor, in all the papers, English and German.

Visitors for the 6th Ward, Mr. Jacob Oberman Mr. Daggett, Mr. Strohmeyer, and Mr. L. Stoffel.

Each member authorized to get 250 soup tickets for distribution.

On motion Dr. Hanson, L. Bonnell, and L H. Kellogg were appointed a committee to purchase flour.

On motion adjourned to next Monday evening, at the central Office, in Main street.

☞ Parkhurst & Co., at 95 East Water St., close out the balance of their winter fruit to-day. Go early and get a barrel cheap.

Erie Canal.—The Albany Evening Journal, of the 7th, says:

Just before going to press, we learn from E. Babcock, Esq., that at 11 A. M., to-day, there were eight boats between Rotterville and Port Jackson, thirty-seven boats opposite Port Jackson, and twenty-two boats between Port Jacks n and Phillips' Lock. The Canal Commissioners and the Superintendent are there, and every possible effort is made to push them all through. Between Phillips' Lock and Hoffman's Ferry, there are twenty more boats. The forward one, rigged with an icebreaker and drawn by ten horses, is forcing a passage. Nearly all these boats are laden with grain and flour.

The St. Clair Flats.—The Detroit Tribune says that the Government dredge boat has been purchased by Barton & Co., the contractors, and the tugs and lighters used in the work of improving the channel are at Algonac.

The whole amount to be excavated, under the contract, was 4,000 ft long, 300 wide, and extending to the depth of 10 feet. The following will show the amount completed thus far:

Months.	Cubic yards.
August.....	14,000
September.....	9,000
October.....	9,000
November.....	9,000
	84,0

The operations have been confined to a channel 50 feet wide and 3 feet deep, and the amount actually dredged out is only a little more than one-sixth of that called for by the items of the contract.

As more work has been marked out than it has been found possible to complete, the channel at present is not in the shape in which it was hoped to have been left, but runs somewhat abruptly from point to point.

Matters Coming to a Crisis in Kansas.

Cincinnati, Dec. 10.

The St. Louis Democrat received Kansas letters to-night containing the proceedings of a Delegate Convention at Lecompton on the 2d. The entire Territory was represented. Chas Robinson presided. Resolutions were unanimously adopted repudiating and pledging ceaseless hostility to the Lecompton Constitution; denouncing the election on the 21st ult., and that for the 4th proximo; declaring Legislature elected October 5th shall not be suspended by any Constitution or State Government until a fair, impartial vote be had; indorsing the Topeka Constitution, and requesting an extra session of the Territorial Legislature to frame an election law and submit the Topeka and Lecompton Constitutions to a vote of the people—the one receiving a majority of the legal votes to become the fundamental law of the State of Kansas. A resolution also passed returning thanks to Secretary Stanton for calling a special session of the Legislature. Speeches were made by Robinson, Lane, Thatcher, Redpath and others.

Kansas Territorial Legislative Convened.

A gentleman who left Wyandott, K. T., on the 4th inst., reached this city yesterday morning, and says that just before starting for the East, he saw a Lawrence paper of the 3rd inst., which contained a proclamation from the acting Territorial Governor, Stanton, calling for a meeting of the recently elected Territorial Legislature, to be held at Lecompton on the 7th. This movement is, no doubt, made to anticipate the proceedings of the self-constituted provisional Governor, Calhoun. That vagabond, as will be seen by the letters of our correspondent, has issued a proclamation for an election for Territorial officers, on the first Monday of January.—St. Louis Democrat, 9th.

The School Land Sales—No Land Sold.—The sale of School and Swamp Lands for the season have been completed. The most enormous sales took place during the summer, and large amounts were realized to add to the School Fund. But the hard times coming on, effectually shut down on sales, and nearly all the lands offered since the first of October found no buyers. These lands are now open to private sale, and consist of at least a million and a half of acres. Money has been so difficult to obtain, that even preemptors have failed to "come to the scratch," and large numbers of pre-emption rights have been forfeited.

The sales in Crawford and other counties have been postponed till next year.—Madison Argus, Dec. 10.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE.

This document was spread at length before our readers in yesterday's paper, but the space which it occupied and the late hour at which we received the copy, precluded any extended comment. It is not remarkable either for eloquence of style, originality of sentiment, or sagacious statesmanship; but derives unwonted interest from the topics of which it treats. The first subject which engages the President's attention and occupies over a column of the message, is the financial condition of the country. This is described as "deplorable," but by no means past cure. Our Banking system is held up as the prime cause of the widely prevalent distress and derangement in business, and while it is admitted that the General Government cannot interfere in the premises, the opinion is expressed that the several States can, if they choose, correct the evil by legislation and guard against its recurrence. Our Foreign Relations occupy the next portion of the Message. These are, in the main, on a satisfactory footing. Indeed, with the exception of Spain and some of the Central and South American States, we are on very friendly terms with all the civilized governments of the world. No progress has been made in the settlement of matters in dispute between Spain and the United States; the President announces that he is going to send out a new Minister to the Court of Madrid with special instructions suited to the case. It is to be hoped that he will do the country more credit, and render it better service, than the irascible SOULE, or the incompetent DONOY. The state of affairs in Central America is next alluded to, and while fillibustering in general is justly and severely denounced, a feeble apology is offered for the suspicious failure of the U. S. Authorities, at New Orleans and in the Gulf, to arrest the recent piratical expedition of General WALKER. We have a small quarrel brewing with Paraguay, the President proposing to try fair words first and forcible means afterwards, to bring it to a settlement.

The pregnant theme of Kansas next engrosses the Presidential mind and Message. The unusual space devoted to this subject, shows that it has been carefully studied by the President and his Cabinet and that the conclusions announced are those upon which the Administration is prepared to stand, or fall. Our readers are already aware that the President justifies and sustains the bogus Lecompton Convention in its refusal to submit the whole Constitution to the People of Kansas, and he closes a long and pettifogging review of the question, in the Message, with a very distinct intimation of his wish that Congress will confirm the action of the Convention. He does not indeed say this, in so many words, but he leaves it to be irresistibly inferred from the premises he lays down. Accordingly his confidential friends in the Senate, and his organs among the press, have already taken this ground; while Senator DOUGLAS, with his following, declares for the right of the People of Kansas, to pass upon the whole Constitution.

The Mormon Rebellion in Utah is the next topic of Executive discourse. The facts are briefly stated, and Congress enjoined to use all necessary diligence in suppressing this threatening outbreak. The organization of the new Territory of Arizonia is strongly recommended and an argument gone into to prove that Congress can lawfully appropriate money to build a military road to the Pacific. A statement follows showing the condition of the Federal Treasury. For the year ending on the 30th of June last, the expenditures were $70,822,742, and the receipts $88,532,889. For the current fiscal year the expenses are estimated at $74,962,068, and the receipts at $75,889,934. But as the actual expenditures will probably outrun the estimates, while the receipts may not come up to them, authority is asked to issue Treasury notes to meet any temporary deficiency. The whole outstanding debt of the U. S. at the present date is only twenty-five millions. An increase of four Regiments is recommended for the Army, and the construction of ten small war steamers for the Navy.

The Public Lands come next. The U. S. have already disposed of three hundred and sixty-three millions of acres, and still have more than a thousand millions unsold. In the disposal of these the President recommends more care and economy than has heretofore been practiced, but he does not, we regret to say, discountenance the partial and mischievous legislation by which of late years, so many millions of acres of the Public Domain have been given away to private corporations. A brief account of the General Post Office; some reflections upon the duty of economizing our expenditures, and a polite hint to Congress to give the President time to "read and examine" the bills they may pass, and not crowd them upon him at the end of the Session, closes the first Message of President BUCHANAN—a document not destined to enhance his fame, or strengthen his party. Enough for to-day.

APPOINTMENTS.—The Madison Argus, Appleton Crescent, and others of the Democratic press, are exercising themselves greatly in relation to the two or three appointments in the gift of the Governor elect. According to them, there is to be a tremendous struggle among the constituent elements of the Republican party for these little affairs, and the "influence" which accompanies them.

Our imaginative Democratic cotemporaries may as well set their hearts at rest. The Governor elect, we doubt not, will in the few appointments in his gift, recognize capable, well-known and reliable members of his party, which is all that his party can require of him. If there should, however, be any difficulty in settling these matters, we are assured that our democratic cotemporaries shall be advised by circular, so that they may have a hand in.

The Kansas Swindle.

The St. Louis Democrat thus sums up the iniquities of the Kansas Convention business, which are sustained by the President:

We have said that practically the rejection of the slavery clause would leave the institution as an existing one in Kansas. This will be evident to any one who will look at the language of the instrument itself, in connection with the anterior legislation which has transpired. In fact, it is only upon this condition that the freemen of Kansas are permitted to dissent from the extension of slavery in their midst. They must first sanction all the outrage that has been perpetrated against their rights; next swear fealty to the rule of usurpation for four years to come; again, surrender, for the time being, all legislation into the possession of the bandit of ragmuffins who call themselves a convention; and lastly, make over to them in advance the full power and patronage of the state government, as well as legalize the existence of slavery before they can be allowed to claim the rights of citizenship, or exercise the freedom of suffrage. Men must endorse and protect slavery as an institution in Kansas now, ere they can protest against its expansion hereafter. The nullity of such a protest, too, is to be made apparent at the outset, for the mounting of the ballots is to be entrusted to hands that all men know will manufacture immense pro-slavery majorities. McGee and Johnson counties are to be reinstated in their fraudulent supremacy. No conscientious scruples of a Walker or a Staunton are to be tolerated. A provisional governor of their own is appointed in the person of Mr. Calhoun, and the choice of pliant judges of election is to be the work of his leisure and arrangement.

MINIE RIFLE BALLS.—The Albany Express says the workmen in the U. S. Arsenal at Watervliet, are engaged in shipping 250,000 Minie rifle balls—their point of destination, however, is not mentioned.

Post Master General's Report.

The Report of Hon. A. V. Brown commences very appropriately by stating that the present Postmaster General has ventured on no new theories, nor attempted any innovations on the well-tried system established by his predecessors. He has "contented himself with endeavoring, as far as in his power, to perfect existing arrangements, and extend its facilities equally and fairly to every portion of our widely extended country."

During the last fiscal year there have been 1,725 offices established, and 702 discontinued—being a net increase of 1,021. The number of postmasters appointed during the year was 8,680. Of these appointments 4,767 were to fill vacancies occasioned by resignation; 1,581 by removal; 238 by death; 269 by change of names and sites, and 1,725 by the establishment of new offices. The total number of offices at this time is 27,148, of which 368 are of the class denominated presidential, their incumbents being subject to appointment by the President and Senate.—The commissions of the higher class run four years from the date of confirmation, but those of the lower are not limited.

TRANSPORTATION STATISTICS.

On the 30th of June last there were in operation 7,588 mail routes. The number of contractors was 5,375. The length of these routes is estimated at 242,691 miles, divided as follows, viz:

Railroad	32,580 miles.
Steamboat	15,245 "
Coach	49,329 "
Inferior grades	155,497 "

The total annual transportation of mails was 74,906,067 miles, costing $6,632,046, and divided as follows:

Railroad, 24,267,994 miles, at $2,559,847—about ten cents and five mills a mile.

Steamboat, 4,616,119 miles, at $991,998—about twenty-two cents a mile.

Coach, 10,690,920 miles, at $1,410,826—about seven cents and four mills a mile.

Inferior grades, 27,629,084 miles, at $1,650,375—about six cents a mile.

Compared with the Service reported on the 20th of June, 1856, there is an addition of 2,959 miles; to the length of mail routes; 3,598,170 miles to the total annual transportation—being about 5 per cent; and of $586,672 to the cost, or 9 7-10 per cent.

The aggregate length of railroad routes has been increased 2,267 miles, and the annual transportation thereon 2,458,633 miles—11 2 10 per cent; at a cost of $249,468, or 11 8-10 per cent.

The length of steamboat routes is greater by 294 miles, and the annual transportation by 271,349 miles, costing $131,248 additional, or 6½ per cent. on transportation, and 16 2-10 per cent. on the cost.

The length of coach route has been reduced 1,124 miles, and the annual transportation 24,091 miles; while the expense has been increased $70,470, or about 5½ per cent.

The extensive railroad service, which has been very great, is more plainly exhibited in the following table, in which the increase is given separately in geographical sections:

States.	Additional length of route.	Additional miles of transportation	Additional cost.
New England.....Miles.	197	24,193	$11,142
New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Ohio.....	907	1,257,075	110,208
Virginia, North Carolina South Carolina, and Georgia.....	174	171,073	13,639
Michigan, Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin.....	556	605,083	71,257
Kentucky, Tenn. Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana.....	898	854,254	27,982
Total.....Miles.	2,907	2,905,648	243,458

On the 30th June last there were in service 406 route agents, at a compensation of $310,900; 45 local agents, at $28,488; and 1,235 mail messengers, at $160,920; making a total of $498,812. This amount, with the increased cost of service commencing 1st of July under new contracts ($120,044) added to the cost of service as in operation on the 30th of June last ($6,632,046), makes the total amount for the current year $7,622,902.

This is independent of the cost of ocean mail service.

The expenditures of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1857, including payments to letter carriers and for foreign postages, amounted to $11,608,057 98.

The gross revenue for the year 1857, including receipts from letter carriers and from foreign postages, amounted to $7,353,951 76.

Letter postage,	$988,207 24
Stamps sold,	5,447,764 51
Newspapers and pamphlets,	554,863 51
Registered letters,	85,780 87
Fines,	15 00
Receipts on account of emoluments,	79,851 00
Receipts on account of letter carriers,	154,710 51
Receipts on account of dead letters,	6,756 57
Extra compensation overcharged,	1,667 30
Miscellaneous receipts,	9,739 25
	$7,353,951 76

But if to the gross sum above stated be added the permanent annual appropriations made by the acts of March 3, 1847, and March 3, 1851, in compensation for services rendered to the government in the transportation and delivery of franked matter, the whole revenue of the year will be $8,053,951 76, being $3,468,718 40 less than the expenditures.

The estimated receipts for the current year are $12,058,247, and the estimated expenses $10,583,074.

Brigham Young's Plans.

From the San Francisco Pacific, Nov. 5th.

The following letter was written by a woman at Salt Lake City to her husband, who was on a visit here:

SALT LAKE CITY, Sept. 4, 1857.

MY DEAR HUSBAND,—I have just received your letter to me, and also read one you wrote to sister ——. I am much disappointed, for I thought you would say positively you were coming home this fall. I think, if you understood the spirit of the times in the Valley, you would want to be here.

All the men are preparing for war, both old and young. Some companies have gone out to meet the enemy; more are ready to go when called for.

The carrying companies are all coming in.—What they cannot bring with them they destroy. They have burned hundreds of tons of hay at the stations.

Brother Brigham says, if the brethren will stand by him, he never will let the Gentiles come into the Valleys. He says before they shall come he will burn every house, fence, and haystack, and flee to the mountains. We will make a Moscow of the cities and towns in these Valleys, and a Potters' Field of every canon that our enemies come into.

Brother Kimball says all the women must have a dirk knife, so I wish you would bring me one.

You must bring plenty of powder and lead.—Brother Brigham says, if every Saint will live for their religion we will never be driven from these Valleys. We shall stay here until the time comes to go to Jackson county. We shall no more be called the traitors of Utah, but the free people of Deseret. Yours affectionately.

It would seem from the reference to Jackson county that the Mormons still entertain the idea that they will return in triumph to Jackson Co., Missouri, from whence they were driven in 1838.

The letter from which we make the foregoing extracts is a bona fide one, and we have no doubt gives a correct idea of the intentions of Mormon rulers, so far they have been made known to their followers.

[From the New York Herald.]

John Van Buren and Fernando Wood.

NEW YORK, Dec. 4, 1857.

Will you do me the favor to publish the inclosed correspondence? I have purposely delayed its publication till after election.

J. VAN BUREN.

THE MAYOR'S NOTE.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, NEW YORK, Nov. 17, '57.

My Dear Sir:—I hope, as an especial favor to myself, you will consent to address the ratification meeting on Monday evening, at Tammany Hall. Will you do so, and oblige, Yours very truly, FERNANDO WOOD.

Hon. JOHN VAN BUREN.

MR. VAN BUREN'S REPLY.

New York, Nov. 23, '57.

My Dear Sir:—I shall not be able to attend the meeting at Tammany Hall to-night, as you desire. To be entirely frank with you, I could not speak there to-night, without referring to your recent message, and that contains sentiments and recommendations which I utterly condemn. So I should do you more harm than good by going. Yours Truly, J. VAN BUREN.

Mr. WOOD.

The Tribune intimates that Mr. Van Buren would not have published the above, if Wood had been successful. How ill-natured people are!

The Exiles of Siberia.

The laws of the Russian Empire require that all those condemned, in whatever part of the country they may have received sentence, should pass through Moscow on their way to Siberia; the traveller who may have chanced to be there during the weekly gathering, will have little difficulty in recognizing facts in the following account:

On reaching the city, they were allowed a brief rest in the convict prison, their daily journeys being so calculated that the separate bands arrive there from divers directions each Saturday night. After resting throughout the ensuing week, during which term they are relieved of their chains, they are despatched in one common band on the second Monday after their arrival. They are divided into two or three courts, each strictly guarded by sentinels. In the first of these both sexes are to be seen mingling indiscriminately, and are dressed alike in loose great coats, made of a kind of gray cloth; the only distinguishing mark is, that the men have half their heads shaved—whilst the women retain their long hair—a privilege also granted to the men as regards their beards; which decoration is the pride and delight both of the merchant class and their peasantry.

They are led then to a second court, where their names are registered, as also their crimes and history. Here they make their petitions; some soliciting leave to travel by the side of a brother, a fellow exile—a poor consolation; that of being together in disgrace—but the boon, if granted, is hailed with the greatest joy. A woman will also sometimes petition to accompany her husband; but only in rare cases is this permitted. According to the laws of Russia she may marry again, for the banishment of her husband cancels the marriage bond as completely as death; but if her prayer be granted, government pays her expenses, and she assumes the convict dress, though not the fetters.

The examination past, the exiles are led to a third court, where fetters are placed upon the whole band. This is a most cruel and brutal affair: The fetters consist of a couple of heavy iron rings, one for each ankle, united by a chain not adapted to the size of the person and his length of stride, but of one unvarying length, about two feet. This is connected by means of links from four to five inches long, with another chain fastened around the waist.

The hoops round the ankles are not fastened by a padlock, so as to be removed at night, but are riveted by the executioner, who drives an iron bolt through the rings, and by strong and careless hammering, (for he often misses the mark and strikes the flesh) flattens the bolt at both ends, in such a way that removal is impossible, except by means of the file; and with these chains the poor, weary, foot-sore wretches, are to walk every step of a journey which takes them only a few days short of six months. Meanwhile a sergeant stands by, who must answer for their security with his own life, as he takes care of them during their pilgrimage, and he sees them properly escorted and fastened together in fours by the wrists.

This ceremony over, the gates are thrown open and the world ceases to exist for them. It is surprising to witness the calm bearing, the sad but resigned looks of that melancholy assemblage. Hope is now dead; and in its place a dim, vague glimmer appears in the distance of life, to which they look, perhaps with a more than ordinary curiosity than with any active feeling of terror or dispair. The gates are thrown open, the exiles are handed over to a strong guard, employed exclusively on this duty, and each soldier loads his gun in their presence; there is also a mounted escort, with spears, the commander of which carries a long whip to lash the cavalcade into order; and thus they move on, the males first, then the carts, and lastly the females. Persons of rank are not treated otherwise than the lowest serf, noblemen being compelled to march the dreary journey on foot, and as heavily chained as the vilest felon. Those destined for the mines are shut out even from the light of heaven; they not only lose rank and riches, but by a refinement of cruelty, are deprived even of their names, and a number given them instead, by which the driver of each band calls when he has need to address them.

THE KIDNAPPING CASE ONCE MORE.—We have already given a pretty full account of the kidnapping of the two negro boys, named Daniel Prue and Edward Hight, from Geneva, N.Y., and the escape of the former at Carlisle Station, by knocking down the man who had him in charge. Some additional particulars have been given, together with affidavits made by responsible persons residing in Ontario County, N.Y., which indisputably settles the question that both the boys were free, and that one of them, Prue, was born in the town of Seneca, New York.

The documents to which we refer show that both negroes were enticed away from Geneva by a man named Van Tuyl, who has been a clerk in that village, and who was probably assisted by accomplices. When the two in whose charge the boys were, were arrested at Franklin, they gave their names as Jenkins and Lessington, but one of them was supposed to be Van Tuyle, disguised by false beard and whiskers. They were discharged, because of the fact that Prue, the negro who escaped from the cars, who was the principal witness against them, got frightened, and left town. He held his freedom too dear to run the risk of losing it by any trap of his kidnappers.

The name of the gentleman from New York who has gone to Kentucky with the requisition, is Calvin Walker, of Ontario County, and he carries indisputable evidence of the negroes being free. An attempt was made by the kidnappers to sell Hight in Louisville, on his way down the river, but failed. It is understood, however, that he has changed owners already two or three times, since being taken to Kentucky. A foul wrong has been committed, and even though the sufferer be an ignorant negro, he is entitled to the protection of law.—Cincinnati Gazette.

REDUCTION IN THE PRICE OF THE
BADGER STATE SAFES!
NOT TO BE SURPASSED in any respect by any safe manufactory in the whole country, we have just completed our arrangements for manufacturing the
BADGER STATE SAFES,
Upon a larger scale than we have ever done heretofore by the introduction of new machinery, and by increasing our manufacturing facilities.
FIRE & BURGLAR PROOF!
Our SAFES, as is well known, are more substantially constructed, and more handsomely finished than any other safe manufactured in America, and consequently it has cost us more in getting up our safes than any other manufacturing establishment in the country. But, notwithstanding this, we are now enabled to offer our safes to the public at
AS LOW PRICES!
As any other safes manufactured. The following are the former and present prices of some of our safes:—

No. 1 Badger Safe,	present price,	$125,	former,	$150.
" 1½ "	" "	160,	"	185
" 2 "	" "	200,	"	245
" 3 "	" "	275,	"	309

and so on.
The severe tests which the Badger State Safe has stood, both in this city and elsewhere, establishes its proof against fire and water for the protection of valuables.
All orders promptly attended to. Address

Publishers Daily Sentinel, Milwaukee, Wis.

☞ We wish to say to every person who reads this, that there is an article known as Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Remedy, which can be relied on as certain to cure Liver Complaint in any of its forms, such as Jaundice, Dyspepsia, and numerous other complaints, described in another column, besides which, it is one of the greatest preparations or cures for consumption, taken in early stages, that is now known.

We take it for granted, as experiment has proven, that diseases of the lungs are not generally the first cause of consumption, but a debilitated system caused by the improper action of the liver, reduces the power of the lungs to resist or throw off diseases caused by cold and irritation, leaving the lungs at the mercy of one disease, because the liver has incapacitated them from performing their proper action of throwing off diseased matter caused by cold, thus to prevent consumption, cure the liver, and keep the system strong enough to throw off slight diseases of the lungs.

There is not in the world a better liver remedy, or a cure for debilitated system, than Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, for it has been fully tried in a large and extended practice, till its results are fully known, and now it is offered as a tried remedy, and one that can be relied on. (See advertisement.)

New Winter Arrangement Commences on MONDAY, Nov. 23, 1857.

Three Daily Trains leave Depot of Little Miami Railroad, Front Street, Cincinnati, as follows:

By this train passengers reach the Ohio River at 8 P. M. Have one hour for dinner on the superb steamer John Black, and in this manner they are transported across the Ohio to Parkersburg, Va. Leave there at 4.50 P. M., and continue on Express Train, arriving in Baltimore at 11.30 A. M., and in Washington at 11.20 A. M.

Passengers for Philadelphia and New York continue directly through without delay in Baltimore, if they desire to do so.

M., where Passengers remain over night, and take breakfast in new and first class Hotel, adjoining the depot, resuming their journey at 8 A. M. next morning, and continuing on the United States Mail Train through to Baldmore, Washington, and other Eastern cities.
